

LAW OFFICES OF RON BOCHNER
Ron K. Bochner - 160093
232 E. Anapamu Street
Santa Barbara, California 93101
(805) 979-3007

ATTORNEY FOR PLAINTIFF AND
THE CLASS

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
SANTA BARBARA COUNTY UNLIMITED-SOUTHERN DIVISION

ANDY JANG, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ASSET CAMPUS HOUSING, INC.,
PROPERTY SOLUTIONS
INTERNATIONAL, INC.,
ENTRATA, INC.

Defendants.

Case No. 2:15-CV-01067 JAK
(PLAx)

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION
COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF
CIVIL CODE SECTION 1748.1;
DECLARATORY RELIEF,
CONVERSION; VIOLATION OF
UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES
ACT; VIOLATION OF CONSUMER
LEGAL REMEDIES ACT

Plaintiff alleges:

1. At all times mentioned in this complaint, Plaintiff ANDY JANG (hereafter "Plaintiff") was and is a resident of the County of Santa Barbara, State of California.
2. Defendant ASSET CAMPUS HOUSING, INC. (hereafter "ACH") is a Texas corporation and a property manager of residential rental units in the County of Santa Barbara and elsewhere in California.
3. Defendant PROPERTY SOLUTIONS INTERNATIONAL, INC. ("PSI") is or

1 was a Utah corporation and is a third party guarantor for credit payments as defined
2 at Civil Code section 1748.1(d), actively doing business in California and with
3 plaintiff and plaintiffs herein. Defendant ENTRATA, INC. is the successor
4 corporation of PSI and has taken all its liabilities and assets. PSI's counsel has
5 referred to ENTRATA, INC. as PSI's new name. To Plaintiff's understanding,
6 ENTRATA, INC. is now registered with the California Secretary of State, but PSI
7 is no longer listed. These defendants are collectively referred to as PSI hereafter.

8 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that at all times
9 herein mentioned each of the Defendants herein named, including those named 10 fictitiously, were the agents, employees, representatives, joint or co-venturers of 11 each other in doing the things herein alleged and, in so doing, were acting in the 12 course and scope of that agency, employment, venture or representation and with 13 the permission, consent or ratification of their co-Defendants. As such, the 14 Defendants, and each of them, including those named fictitiously, are jointly and 15 severally liable to Plaintiff. The Defendants are collectively referred to as 16 Defendants, ACH or PSI as appropriate hereafter.

17 5. ACH and its employees and agents at Isla Vista, Santa Barbara County,
18 California and other California locations entered into a written lease agreements
19 with Plaintiff and others for a residence. In Plaintiff's case, the tenancy was at the 20 Capri Apartments located at 6598 Seville Road, Isla Vista, California. During the 21 terms of such leases, ACH accepted payment from plaintiff and plaintiffs via the use
22 of credit cards by and through PSI or other third party guarantors as defined by 23 1748.1(d). It also accepted electronic charges which debited consumer's bank
24 accounts, including plaintiff.

25 6. On each such occasion, plaintiff and others, either using ACH or another retailer, 26 PSI charged and charges a surcharge when a credit card was used. When an electronic charge was debited against plaintiff and other consumer's bank accounts,

1 or when the rent was paid by check or cash, no such surcharge was made.

2 7. The court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Defendants' removal
3 under the Class Action Fairness Act, various provisions of the United States Code.

4 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 8. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set
6 forth herein.

7 9. Pursuant to FRCP Rule 23 and California Civil Code section 1781, as applicable,
8 and common law, representative Plaintiff brings this case on his own behalf and on 9 behalf of all persons similarly situated ("Plaintiffs").

10 10. The class or classes that Plaintiff wishes to represent are composed of 11 Californians subjected to surcharges on credit card payments to Defendants as 12 described in paragraphs 5-6 above.

13 11. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact
14 involved affecting each Plaintiff class in that the questions of fact are common 15 amongst each Plaintiff class and the questions of law, the law's application, and 16 what remedy is necessary to protect the class are common among the class
17 members. These questions of law and fact predominate over questions that effect 18 only individual class members in that the class members have been dealt with by 19 Defendants in a systematic, routine and closely similar fashion to his own,
20 specifically, that Defendants have made and are making surcharges on payments
21 made with a credit card.

22 12. There is no plain, speedy or adequate remedy other than by maintenance of this 23 class action, since it appears the surcharge when there is use of a credit card for 24 transactions in a systematic and routine manner are violations of the law other class 25 members are unlikely to seek relief for given the relatively small amount of 26 damages involved and the cost and expense of doing so. Consequently, there would be a failure of justice but for the maintenance of the present class action.

1 13. The prosecution of individual remedies by members of each Plaintiff class
2 would tend to establish inconsistent standards of conduct for Defendants and result
3 in the impairment of class members' rights and the disposition of their interests
4 through actions to which they are not parties. It would also result in the unnecessary
5 duplication of effort and expense.

6 14. Class Requirements:

7 A. Numerosity: It appears that ACH manages at least 200 rental
8 leases in Santa Barbara County alone, though it manages other properties
9 throughout California. Assuming a very conservative number of its tenants utilized
10 the use of a credit card in making payments sometime during their tenancy, it
11 appears there may well be over 500 class members over a four year period.
12 Moreover, it appears PSI, a large national and international company, routinely and 13 systematically surcharges for all use of credit cards in California and therefore the 14 class size almost certainly is many times multiple to that of ACH tenants alone.
15 From discovery it in fact appears that tens of thousands of credit card using 16 Californians have been surcharged by PSI. Therefore, it appears the Plaintiff class 17 members are so numerous that the individual joinder of all members would be 18 impracticable.

19 B. Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and 20 fact exist as to all members of the Plaintiff classes and those questions clearly 21 predominate over any questions which might affect members individually. These 22 common question of law and fact is whether the surcharges for credit card purchases 23 were legal and, if not, what the proper remedy is.

24 C. Typicality: As alleged, Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims
25 of the members of the Plaintiff Classes, his claim and those of the class share the 26 typical issue of the surcharge for use of a credit card.

 D. Adequacy: Plaintiff in this action will fairly and adequately

1 protect the interests of the members of the Plaintiff Class since Plaintiff possesses
2 no interest which is adverse to the interests of absent class members and since 3 Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in the prosecution of class actions and 4 residential rental cases.

5 E. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available means 6 for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy since individual joinder of 7 all members would be impracticable. Class action treatment will permit a large 8 number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single 9 forum simultaneously, efficiently and without the unnecessary duplication of effort
10 and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. Furthermore, the 11 expenses and burdens of litigating individual actions would make it difficult or 12 impossible for individual members of the class to redress the wrongs done to them.
13 An important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class
14 action, substantial economies to the litigants and to the judicial system will be 15 realized, and the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments will be 16 avoided. This is particularly true as to the claims for declaratory and injunctive 17 relief.

18 F. Ascertainable Class: The classes are ascertainable in that either 19 documents, electronic tape and/or data bases likely exist and can show or can be 20 made to show class membership, or that an adequate sampling method can be 21 created to certify a class and class membership and/or that actual class membership 22 either alone or with a process above will allow class members to identify 23 themselves. It seems likely that account records/ledgers will suffice to adduce class
24 membership exists.

25 15. Tentative Class Definitions: As such, plaintiff intends to certify a class or 26 classes tentatively defined as follows: all Californians surcharged for use of a credit card by ACH and/or PSI within the last four years. Moreover, separately, each such

1 class seeks declaratory and corresponding injunctive relief to prevent such practices
2 in the future.

3 16. Plaintiff has incurred and, during the pendency of this action will incur
4 expenses for attorney's fees and costs herein. Such attorney's fees and costs are 5 necessary for the prosecution of this action and will result in a benefit to each
6 member of the classes.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 VIOLATION OF CIVIL CODE SECTION 1748.1

9 17. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set
10 forth herein.

11 18. Plaintiff was and the class were or are residential tenants by and through written 12 leases of ACH, a retailer, or other retailer in California, paying rent and/or other 13 charges with a credit card and surcharged for such use in violation of 1748.1 by and 14 through PSI and thus were damages by violation of that statute.

15 19. Plaintiff notified ACH of the facts and demanded restitution of the surcharges
16 by certified mail. Both ACH and PSI responded to the demand but did not provide 17 restitution. Therefore, this action is brought under Civil Code section 1748.1(b) and 18 Plaintiff and Plaintiffs demand treble damages for each surcharge.

19 20. Plaintiffs also seek damages and restitution from PSI to the extent the 20 allegations of Para 19 do not apply, that is, that notice to one retailer or transaction
21 with one retailer is not sufficient to provide the remedy set forth under 1748.1(b)
22 against the guarantor.

23 21. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and a class of similarly situated others, also seeks 24 declaratory and injunctive relief, compelling ACH and PSI's compliance Civil Code 25 1748.1.

26 22. Plaintiff also asks for attorney's fee per Civil Code 1748.1(b), Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5 and the catalyst, common fund and substantial benefit doctrines.

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF PRAYS AS SET FORTH BELOW.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

23. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set forth herein.

24. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff, Plaintiff class and Defendants concerning their respective rights and duties in that Plaintiffs contend Defendants have routinely and systematically not complied with Civil Code section 1748.1 and Defendants believe they have.

25. Plaintiff and the class desire a judicial determination of their rights and duties, and a declaration as to whether any of the above are invalid and/or which party's interpretation of the law is correct.

26. A judicial declaration is necessary and appropriate at this time and under the circumstances in order that Plaintiffs may ascertain their rights and duties regarding the above and to implement such rights.

27. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and a class of similarly situated others, requests an order compelling ACH and PSI's compliance with the law as set forth above.

28. Plaintiff also asks for attorney's fee per Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5, the catalyst, common fund and substantial benefit doctrines.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(CONVERSION)

29. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set forth herein.

30. In all circumstances Plaintiff and Plaintiffs paid money to defendants some or all of which does not belong to defendants and which was required to be returned by defendants.

31. Defendants have taken possession of that money and prevented plaintiffs access

1 to it, despite plaintiffs lack of consent.

2 32. As the legal result of defendants' actions, Plaintiffs have been dispossessed of 3 their money and beneficial interests associated therewith.

4 33. Defendants knew they had not properly kept Plaintiffs money and did nothing
5 to return it once they knew they had no further right to it. As such, defendants'
6 actions were willful, wanton, malicious and oppressive and were undertaken with an
7 intent to defraud and justify the award of exemplary and punitive damages.

8 34. Plaintiff also asks for attorney's fee per Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5, the
9 catalyst, common fund and substantial benefit doctrines.

10 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFFS PRAY AS SET FORTH BELOW.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 VIOLATION OF UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES ACT

13 35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set
14 forth herein.

15 36. The actions alleged constitute deceptive, unlawful and unfair business practices
16 within the meaning of the Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code
17 section 17200, et seq. (UCL). Such acts were unfair and unlawful as in violation of 18 Civil Code section 1748.1, the CLRA, constitute conversion, are unlawful and 19 unfair as in violation of Federal Trade Commission Rule 5 (substantial consumer
20 injury, not outweighed by any countervailing benefits to consumers or competition,
21 involving injury that consumers could not reasonably have avoided), or immoral,
22 oppressive or unscrupulous as described.

23 37. Such acts were also deceptive as defined by the UCL since they were asserted 24 to allowed when they are not.

25 38. As a proximate result of Defendants' practices, Plaintiff has incurred damage by 26 being charged amounts not in accord with Civil Code section 1748.1.

39. Plaintiffs, therefore, seek injunctive relief, as a representative action, necessary

1 to prevent the use or employment by Defendants of the practices alleged herein as 2 well as restitution of funds improperly obtained therefrom.

3 40. Plaintiff also asks for attorney's fee per Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5, the
4 catalyst, common fund and substantial benefit doctrines.

5 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFFS PRAY AS SET FORTH BELOW.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CONSUMER LEGAL REMEDIES ACT

8 41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the preceding paragraphs as fully set
9 forth herein.

10 42. The Consumer Legal Remedies Act (CLRA) proscribes unfair methods of 11 competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices undertaken by any person in a 12 transaction intended to result, or which results in, the sale of goods or services to 13 any consumer. Plaintiff and Plaintiff on behalf of the class alleges that the charge of 14 a fee of a credit card is a service. As such, Defendants appear to have engaged in 15 the type of transactions foreseen by the CLRA.

16 43. The surcharge of a credit card violates Civil Code section 1770(a)(5) in that it
17 represents that services have approval which they do not have and/or 1770(a)(14)
18 prohibiting representing a transaction confers rights, remedies or obligations 19 (representing that surcharging credit cards is permissible) which it does not have or 20 involve, or which are prohibited by law per California Civil Code section 1748.1.

21 44. Plaintiff has suffered damage as a result of the surcharge of his credit card. Per 22 the facts set forth in paragraphs 14A-D above, the requirements of the CLRA are 23 met to represent others per California Civil Code section 1781(a).

24 45. Additionally, or alternatively, plaintiff seeks injunctive relief either with or 25 without a class prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the practices alleged.

26 46. Plaintiff sent ACH and PSI, in the manner prescribed by the CLRA, a notice of these violations. No remedy was proffered by ACH nor PSI.

1 47. Plaintiff also asks for attorney's fee per Civil Code section 1780(e) and Code of 2 Civil Procedure 1021.5.

3 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs PRAY AS SET FORTH BELOW.

4 PRAYER

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against each Defendant as 6 follows:

- 7 1. Certification of a Class Action per California Civil Code section 382 and 8 1781(a);
9 2. An accounting;
10 3. Statutory damages;
11 4. Actual Damages;
12 5. Treble damages per 1748.1(b);
13 6. Punitive Damages;
14 7. Restitution;
15 8. A Declaration of the respective rights and duties of the parties;
16 9. An Order enjoining the methods, acts or practices alleged;
17 10. Attorney's fees per Civil Code section 1748.1, Code of Civil Procedure 1021.5,
18 Civil Code section 1780(e), the catalyst, common fund and substantial benefit 19 doctrines as well as costs and expenses of suit; and 20 11. Such other and further relief as the court deems proper.

21
22 August _____, 2015

LAW OFFICE OF RON BOCHNER

23
24 BY/s/_____
25 RON K. BOCHNER
26 Attorney for Plaintiff